October 1 – November 21, 2014
Opening Reception September 30, 6 – 8 pm

(New York, NY) Acquavella Galleries is pleased to announce an exhibition of works by iconic American artist Wayne Thiebaud, on view from October 1 – November 21, 2014. The exhibition includes a total of 49 works – 35 paintings and 14 works on paper. Many of the works included are being shown to the public for the first time, and several are compositions the artist has been working on for over thirty years. This is Thiebaud’s second exhibition with the gallery.

Celebrated for his works that highlight the commonplace, the 93-year-old Thiebaud continues to shed painterly light on the people, places and things that surround him on a daily basis. Despite his association with pop artists of the 1960s, Thiebaud’s method is more aligned with the still life tradition – and this preoccupation with scrupulously representing his subjects sets him apart from his contemporaries. Ordinary objects rendered in the tactility of Thiebaud’s brushwork become resplendent, and thus his canvases radiate a particularly American optimism and nostalgia for the familiar.

The works on view in this exhibition touch upon recognizable themes in the context of Thiebaud’s oeuvre. Cold Case (2010-2013) revisits his most famous subject – confections. Similarly, Cupcakes & Donuts (2006/2012) and Ring Circle (2012-2014) both explore the artist’s preexisting interest in modes of commercial display. The splendor of California’s landscape is once again depicted in Bluffs (2013) – this time in a cake-like pink. The figures in this exhibition, among them Robed Woman with Letter (1976/2013), are familiarly stoic and simultaneously confessional. “We are thrilled to be presenting Thiebaud’s recent work,” said Eleanor Acquavella “this exhibition is a testament to his unique ability to illuminate the everyday and elevate the ordinary.”
