

THE WICKED STEPMOTHER WHO SAVED MY LIFE By Martin Amis

TOWN & COUNTRY

MAY 2014

The T&C
50
The World's

An Empire Strikes Back

A Working Mother Rebuilds One of Europe's Greatest Dynasties

What Happened to GRACE KELLY'S Legendary American Family

Ginevra Elkann, of Italy's Agnelli family

SOCIAL CALENDAR

It's a good month to...
BUY A MASTERPIECE!

→ FRIEZE ART FAIR May 9–12
The contemporary fair with the great cafés returns to Randall's Island, in the East River.

→ WARHOL: JACKIE Through May 17
Two dozen Warhol Jackies in one gallery—all together for the first time since he made them—at Blain Di Donna Gallery.

→ JEAN-MICHEL BASQUIAT May 1–June 13
Acquavella Galleries (which bought the record-breaking Bacon triptych at Christie's on behalf of Elaine Wynn) presents Basquiat drawings from the Schorr Family Collection.

→ ROBERT RAUSCHENBERG & PAUL TAYLOR May 14–15
Four Rauschenberg works consigned by the Paul Taylor Dance company will be sold at Sotheby's to benefit the troupe. The artist and the choreographer were frequent collaborators.

