

Artinfo.com
July 1, 2007

ARTINFO

Aicon Gallery to Relocate to Lower East Side

By ARTINFO

Published: July 1, 2008

NEW YORK—Aicon Gallery has announced the relocation of its New York space from the Flatiron district to the Lower East Side. Designed by Nobu Arai, the new Aicon New York will be located at 33-35 Great Jones Street in an 8,000-square-foot, bi-level space. The gallery opens on September 18 with an exhibition celebrating the career of Francis Newton Souza, "The Ghost of Souza," which will comprise works by the late Indian master as well as by contemporary artists and will run through October 17. Aicon Gallery focuses on South Asian contemporary art and has additional locations in Palo Alto and London.