> King Cabs

IN A REGION WHERE CABERNET IS KING, HERE ARE NAPA VALLEY'S BEST BOTTLES OF THE SEASON

- FAR NIENTE

A true Napa classic, Far Niente's 2006 Estate Cabernet beams with aromas of black licorice and briar patch with a layered finish.

- CHAPPELLET

Setting the standard in Napa hillside Cabernet, only the best blocks of Donn Chappellet's Pritchard Hill estate were used for their 2006 Estate Cabernet.

- CONTINUUM

The next generation of Mondavi wine-makers are following in the same spirit with a new winery appropriately named Continuum. Their second vintage, a 2006 Cabernet, is an approachable young wine built for the long haul.

- SHAFAER

With the telltale signs of a Stag's Leap Cabernet, Shafer's 2006 One Point Five is a sophisticated choice even next to the house's Hillside Select.

- BOND

Bond's 2005 Vecina is dense and powerful, showing a wide range of notes from black cherry to earthy undertones. K.M.

LOS ANGELES

ROGER THAT

Paying homage to some of the great cocktail bars of London and Paris, the team behind Bar Lubitsch and Bar Marmont recently opened The Roger Room. The pre-Prohibition style den serves classic and sophisticated cocktails, without pomp and circumstance, 365 days a year. 370 N. La Cienega, L.A., 310-854-1300. K.M.

Hollywood is reinventing itself as an indie shopping destination, with the first West Coast flagship of What Comes Around Goes Around, an eastside Hennessey + Ingalls bookstore, rotating art exhibitions, pop-up shops and Space 15 Twenty (a hipster mini-mall on Cahuenga). The latest stylish additions to the area are Scout (relocated from their W. 3rd Street storefront to Cherokee Avenue) and Cavern (carrying their locally made clothing line, accessories, art and textiles). And creating the most buzz is Cerre's retail outpost, showcasing their handmade, buttery leather collections, new denim line, as well as vintage clothing and jewelry. s.r.
