

Bose Pacia of New York and Nature Morte of New Delhi have come together to present the best of Indian contemporary art to the international audience. The only gallery from India ever included in prestigious fairs such as Art Basel, Basel Miami Beach, The Armory Show in New York and FIAC in Paris, Nature Morte/Bose Pacia has established itself at the forefront of artistic experimentation within India, championing many of the most adventurous artists. For our second appearance at Art Basel (in 2006 we appeared in the Art Premiere section with works by Subodh Gupta, Justin Ponmany and Rashid Rana)we will have two projects:
