

(e)merge

(e)merge discussion panel + party
Saturday, July 31st: 4 to 8pm

Conner Contemporary Art will host an event specifically for area emerging artists beginning with a discussion panel focusing on how emerging artists build communities.

Panelists:

Kristina Bilonick - visual artist + Washington Project for the Arts program director
Zoë Charlton - visual artist + American University art professor
Damian Elias, Ph.D. - psychologist
Karyn Miller - Cultural Development Corporation program manager
Sheldon Scott - performing artist
Paul So - founder of Hamiltonian gallery + artist fellowship program
Jamie Smith, Ph.D - partner and curator, Conner Contemporary Art

(e)merge discussion panel begins at 4pm; directly followed by (e)merge party – hang out with your community, with DJ Keenan Orr, food and drink.

(e)merge is generously sponsored by Restaurant Marvin, Pink Line Project, and Red Hook.

For further information: www.connercontemporary.com | info@connercontemporary.com | 202 588 8750

Conner Contemporary Art is located at 1358 Florida Avenue, NE Washington, DC 20002 - in the Atlas Arts District/ The H Street shuttle runs from 5pm to 2am daily. Gallery summer hours: Wednesday - Saturday 10-5pm.

