D.C. Art (e)Merges: What's Helen Allen, former director of the Pulse Art Fair, up to these days, as Pulse goes on without her down in Miami? Launching a new fair, that's what! Allen is teaming up with Leigh Conner and Jamie Smith, cofounders of D.C. gallery Conner Contemporary Art, to launch (e)Merge, a new fair in the capital that will debut September 22-25, at the Morris Lapidus-designed Capitol Skyline Hotel. The new endeavor has the support of collectors Don and Mera Rubell, who have been expanding their art/hotel empire in D.C. [Washington City Paper]
