THE ART SHOW CELEBRATES 26 YEARS

NATION'S LONGEST RUNNING FINE ART FAIR
ANNOUNCES EXHIBITION DATES MARCH 5 – 9, 2014
AND 2014 EXHIBITORS LIST

GALA PREVIEW TUESDAY, MARCH 4

ORGANIZED BY THE ART DEALERS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA (ADAA) TO BENEFIT HENRY STREET SETTLEMENT

New York, October 15, 2013 —The Art Show, the nation's foremost and longest running fine art fair, announces the dates for its 26th edition, which will take place March 5 through March 9, 2014, with a Gala Preview on March 4. Organized by the Art Dealers Association of America (ADAA) to benefit Henry Street Settlement, the 26th annual Art Show will once again present thoughtfully curated solo, two-person, and thematic exhibitions by the nation's leading art dealers and galleries.

Dorsey Waxter, ADAA's President remarked on the qualities that distinguish The Art Show among art fairs, "Given the proliferation of art fairs, ADAA's fair remains unique. Whether it is a solo or two-person show, or a thematic presentation, each booth at The Art Show is a finely curated exhibition. ADAA dealers conceive and install significant exhibits at our fair and use it as an opportunity to advance their gallery's vision."

Art Show Chairman, Adam Sheffer, remarked "ADAA's Art Show broke new ground in producing a stellar art fair in New York City 26 years ago. Today, The Art Show continues to be an ideal venue for New Yorkers and visitors alike to connect with artist and their dealers and purchase exquisite works of art." The 2014 Art Show leads a contingent of art fairs around New York City such as The Armory Show, VOLTA, and SCOPE, which also take place during the same week.

The Art Show's considered, curated exhibitions present a dynamic selection of artworks—juxtaposing modern masters and cutting edge contemporary works in exhibitions from galleries all over the country. As in recent years, the 2014 Art Show will include a number of groundbreaking solo exhibitions, such as: Fairfield Porter at Hirschl & Adler Modern, Sean Kelly Gallery's presentation of new paintings by Kehinde Wiley, vintage works by Frank Stella at Mnuchin Gallery, and new work by Ann Hamilton at Carl Solway Gallery. The anticipated thematic group shows include "Louise Bourgeois and Gaston Lachaise" at Cheim & Read, "Women Collagists of the Twentieth Century" at Pavel Zoubok Gallery, and "Conceptual Photography from the 1960s and 70s" at Pace/MacGill Gallery. ADAA is also delighted to welcome five first time exhibiting galleries, Bortolami, Alexander Gray Associates, Yancey Richardson Gallery, Salon 94, and Julie Saul Gallery.

Henry Street Settlement

Henry Street Settlement is a not-for-profit multifaceted agency that provides innovative social service, arts and health care programs to New Yorkers of all ages. Founded on Manhattan's Lower East Side in 1893 by social reformer Lillian Wald, today Henry Street continues to be dynamic catalyst for social and economic progress. The Settlement serves more than 50,000 New Yorkers each year, particularly residents of the ethnically diverse, densely populated lower east side of Manhattan. Distinguished by a profound connection to its neighbors, a willingness to address new problems with swift and innovative solutions, and a strong record of accomplishment, Henry Street challenges the effects of urban poverty by helping families achieve better lives for themselves and their children.
