

THE ART SHOW ANNOUNCES 72 GALLERY PARTICIPANTS FOR THE 27TH EDITION OF THE NATION'S LONGEST RUNNING FINE ART FAIR

ORGANIZED BY THE ART DEALERS ASSOCIATION OF AMERICA (ADAA)
TO BENEFIT HENRY STREET SETTLEMENT

MARCH 4 – 8, 2015
GALA PREVIEW MARCH 3

New York, October 20, 2014 —The Art Show 2015 announces the participating galleries for the 27th edition of America's foremost and longest running fine art fair. Seventy-two of the nation's leading art dealers, including six first-time exhibitors, will present thoughtfully curated solo, two-person and thematic exhibitions at New York's historic Park Avenue Armory. Organized by the Art Dealers Association of America (ADAA) to benefit Henry Street Settlement, The Art Show will take place March 4 through March 8, 2015, with a Gala Preview on March 3.

Dorsey Waxter, ADAA's President, remarks on the qualities that distinguish The Art Show among art fairs, "Given the proliferation of art fairs, ADAA's fair remains unique. Whether it is a solo or two-person show, or a thematic presentation, each booth at The Art Show is a finely curated exhibition. ADAA dealers conceive and install significant exhibits at our fair and use it as an opportunity to advance their gallery's vision."

"The ADAA broke new ground when it created The Art Show in New York City 27 years ago," adds Art Show Chairman, Adam Sheffer. "Today, The Art Show continues its illustrious tradition as the city's longest running art fair. Visitors from around the world are able to connect with our esteemed members, view extraordinary presentations and acquire exceptional works of art." The 2015 Art Show leads a contingent of art fairs around New York City such as The Armory Show, VOLTA and SCOPE, which also take place during the same week.

The Art Show's considered, curated exhibitions present a dynamic selection of artworks—juxtaposing modern masters and cutting edge contemporary works in exhibitions from galleries all over the country. The 2015 Art Show will include a number of groundbreaking solo exhibitions, such as: Wade Guyton at Petzel Gallery, Allan Stone Projects' survey of paintings and works on paper by John Graham, "Limerence" works by Tracey Emin at Lehmann Maupin, and rare historical works by Nam June Paik at Carl Solway Gallery. The anticipated thematic group shows include "Mirror/Mirror," a two gallery exhibition of self portraits presented by Peter Freeman, Inc. and Fraenkel Gallery, "Winold Reiss and Jazz Age Modernism" at Hirschl & Adler Galleries and "The Responsive Eye at 50," Op-Art at Maxwell Davidson Gallery. ADAA also welcomes six first time exhibiting galleries, Thomas Colville Fine Art, Greg Kucera Gallery, Dominique Lévy Gallery, Marc Selwyn Fine Art, Fredric Snitzer Gallery, and Meredith Ward Fine Art.

Daily admission to The Art Show from March 4 – 8, and its Gala Preview on March 3, 2015, benefits Henry Street Settlement, one of New York City's leading social service agencies responding to a spectrum of community needs. For the fourth year, global art insurance specialist, AXA Art Americas Corporation will serve as Lead Partner of The Art Show.

Gala Benefit Preview

To inaugurate The Art Show 2015, a Gala Benefit Preview will be held on Tuesday, March 3 from 5:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. and will benefit Henry Street Settlement's vital programs across 17 sites and in 25 New York City public schools. For advance ticket purchases or additional information, please call 212-766-9200 ext. 247/248.

Henry Street Settlement

Founded in 1893 by Progressive reformer Lillian Wald and based on Manhattan's Lower East Side, Henry Street Settlement delivers a wide range of social services, healthcare and arts programs that improve the lives of more than 50,000 New Yorkers each year. Distinguished by a profound connection to its neighbors, a willingness to address new problems with swift and innovative solutions, and a strong record of accomplishment, Henry Street challenges the effects of urban poverty by helping families achieve better lives for themselves and their children. In 2015 Henry Street celebrates the centennial anniversary of the Playhouse at the Abrons Arts Center, its award-winning program for the visual and performing arts, arts training and artist residencies. www.henrystreet.org

Art Dealers Association of America

Founded in 1962, the Art Dealers Association of America (ADAA) is a non-profit membership organization of more than 180 of the nation's leading galleries in the fine arts. www.artdealers.org

AXA Art Americas Corporation

International reach, unrivalled competence and a high quality network of expert partners distinguish AXA Art, the only art insurance specialist in the world, from its generalist property insurance competitors. Over the past 40 years and well into the future, AXA Art has and will continue to redefine the manner in which it serves and services its museum, gallery, collector and artist clients, across Asia, Americas and Europe, with a sincere consideration of the way valuable objects are insured and cultural patrimony is protected.
