The new critically acclaimed Hole album, Nobody's Daughter, features artwork by Gretchen Ryan on the album sleeve. The work entitled Accident, features six young girls chained together walking off a cliff led by a white dove. Courtney Love, a long-time supporter of the artist specifically wanted this image included in the album artwork. Gretchen, a long-time fan of Hole and Courtney Love, was thrilled to be included in this collaboration between art and music.

PER INCENDIA UT ASTRUM Through the fire to the stars

Hobody's Daughter is dedicated to all the motherless children and fatherless bables in this world. This record is dedicated to the light and to the eternal clouthian fire. This record is dedicated to numinosity and to vengeance and to sobriety. To the debusion of the ten world and to the endless cycle of birth life old age and death with enlightenment firmly in our sights. We are dedicated to the deepest love, the truest love and the purest self love. We are dedicated to a rapacious greed for living and, for God's sake, holding onto yourself in a hurricane knowing you are so loved.

This is dedicated to complete surrender. Just give in baby, just give in and you will find the light inside of yourself full of hate and fury, piss and vinegar, cracked mirrors and total self annilhilation.
Dut the light, the light will overcome, just hang on. And in the end, love and nothing but love.

FLOT — THIS A RECORDING X VEHT WENT WE LOUD I FLEASE.
