ART INTERNATIONAL ISTANBUL 2015 | OUR FAVOURITE WORKS

4th September 2015 + Aaron Price

Erik Parker, Hello, 2014- Art International Istanbul

Art International Istanbul first launched in September 2013 to strong international acclaim. Now in its third edition the fair will once again bring together leading international and local galleries to the Haliç Congress Center from 5 to 6 September 2015. There will also be a private collector's preview taking place today. The fair draws on its unique graphic location as a gateway between East and West and the fair is fast becoming a cultural bridge across the global art world. The fair also provides a programme of exhibitions, events and forums that enables visitors to experience the rich cultural history of Istanbul. We've selected some of our favourite works at the fair for you to take a look at.

Erik Parker – Hello, 2014

Erik Parker - Hello, 2014. Mixed media and collage on canvas. 152,4 x 127 cm.

The New York based artist presents paintings that show his latest interpretations of traditional genres of portraiture, landscape and still life. His personal colour range, acid and saturated, always dominate these themes. The artist's work can be seen as somewhere between realism and rationalism and is positioned for dream worlds and an orderly chaos. It also includes elements of late nineteenth century symbolism and the surrealism of the early twentieth century. Galeria Javier Lopez are the first Spanish gallery to present the artist and display his work at Art International Istanbul.
