22 September 2010, 14.24 | Posted in Art | No comments »

Opening tonight, Todd James: Great Adventure brings a collection of solo works by REAS to Spain for the first time. The exhibition, taking place at Galeria Javier Lopez, features James' most recent works on canvas and paper. As with all his material, the artist displays a knack for social commentary through cartoon-like figures.

Todd James: Great Adventure will run to November 3, 2010.
