

CONTEMPORARY ARTIST EDDIE KANG SOLO EXHIBITION, SANDRA GERING INC.

This solo exhibition in Korea contemporary artist Eddie Kang (Korea name seokhyeon) of being held in Sandra Gering showroom in Manhattan Upper East.

Paradigms Art Company This hosted by (PAC. Representative ganghuigyeong) The exhibition "Love is not a big city life (Big City Life Loveless ), the river writers on the subject away from Dun doll working haeoh existing figurative painting series, skateboard, etc. showcase the new 15-point river author "it tends to be forgotten in the lives tough through mainly works a dream. hope. memories through the dolls that appeared in the emphasis put in the work and recover the valuable elements such as pure animal was represented in symbolic form, "he said. "The meaning itself is formative to work on the plywood directly designed to deliver a change in Dun dolls and linking tasks or flat paintings haeoh existing, but at the same extension as the previous implied showcase quality works are in the exhibition of he said he tried painting " complex landscape of big city living feel a tangle of emotions Sanya canvas made of plywood damgyeotda particular shape on it. Characters that exist in each canvas gotta highlight refers to the artist himself and the audience. River Writers, "expressed the warm memories and pure desire that you do forget in the life of the great city, which is the real weight and cold competition rife with certain types of canvas," he said. River writers in Rhode Island College of Design 2003 after majoring in film, animation, video, and had a number of solo and group exhibitions in Korea and China. The exhibition jimyeo Tuesday through Friday from 10 am to 6 pm continues until August 26th.

Hwangjuyoung, 'Contemporary Artist Eddie Kang Solo Exhibition.' Korea Daily, July 27, 2016.