10 THINGS TO DO IN NEW YORK'S ART WORLD BEFORE APRIL 15

Opening: "Tech-né-Color"
at Sandra Gering

A group show featuring nine contemporary artists known for their use of color and/or technology, this lively exhibition includes paintings and sculptures by Peter Halley, Todd James, KAWS, Ryan McGinness, Karim Rashid, John F. Simon, Jr., Vincent Szarek, Xavier Veilhan and Leo Villareal. Mr. Halley contributes monoprints of explosions on canvas. Mr. McGinness will show screened paintings of layered symbols he's created in drawing and then processed using computer programs. And finally, KAWS shares painted bronze self-portraits. Sandra Gering Inc., 14 East 63 Street, New York, 6-8 p.m.
