

LARS BOHMAN GALLERY

Ernst Billgren, Abstrakt, 24 Mars – 6 May 2012

Lars Bohman Gallery is proud to present Ernst Billgren's exhibition Abstrakt.

Billgren's imagery holds plenty of art historical and mythological references, and his distinctive style exudes an unmistakable humorous edge. Billgren makes us reevaluate our notions regarding taste and cultural preconceptions. His wayward and varied oeuvre spans such diverse areas as painting, sculpture, set design, film, novels, furniture and jewelry.

A catalogue is produced in conjunction with the show and is available at the gallery.

Ernst Billgren was born in 1957 in Stockholm, where he lives and works. He received his artistic training at the Valand School of Fine Arts in Gothenburg, Sweden, 1982-87. Since then he has been professor at several art schools throughout the Nordic region. Since 1997 he is member of the Royal Academy of Fine Art in Stockholm. He has had several solo exhibitions both in Sweden and abroad and he is represented in several public collections including Moderna Museet, Stockholm; Kiasma Museum of Contemporary Art Helsinki, Finland; Museum of Contemporary Art in Oslo, Norway and Malmö Konsthall, Sweden.
