

Thank you for your interest in Robert Mapplethorpe's work. In order for the Foundation to consider your request to reproduce Mapplethorpe images, please provide the following details via email to tess@mapplethorpe.org.

1. a description of the concept and content of the publication
2. the context in which the image(s) will be reproduced
3. the size of the reproduction (i.e., half-page, full-page)
4. the title of the publication
5. the date of the publication
6. the name and address of the publisher
7. the name, title and fax number of the person authorized to sign a reproduction agreement
8. the estimated print run
9. the language edition(s)
10. identify which images you are requesting permission to reproduce; please email a jpeg of the image(s) or refer to a page in a book where the image(s) are reproduced

Once you provide this information, it will be submitted for review. If the Foundation chooses to proceed with your request, we will draw up a written agreement. Please note that under no circumstance can you proceed with any reproduction without signing the agreement and paying the license fee.

Also note that should the Foundation grant your request, any Mapplethorpe work shall be faithfully reproduced and, unless the Foundation gives its express written consent in advance, shall not be cropped, colorized, solarized, overlaid with text, or otherwise altered in any way (except as to overall size).

Thank you.
