The Golf Studio is equipped with patented TrackMan technology that gives players the opportunity to know exact yardages they hit each club in their bag and to quickly make adjustments to how they hit the golf ball, which in turn immediately helps you play better golf.

CROQUET

Croquet is a sport, unlike most, which may be enjoyed while sipping sparkling wine and sampling hors d'oeuvres.

The croquet glen offers a lawn-side setting perfectly suited to hosting refreshments between games. This makes croquet a particularly civilized outdoor activity and a venue for creating memorable special events and celebrations.

Small groups assembled for executive retreats may enjoy the opportunity to engage in a little friendly competition.

Croquet at Meadowood is played on two full-sized, world-class courts (lawns). The lawns run parallel to the golf fairways, separated by a line of redwoods and fir trees. The meticulous bent grass, trimmed to a mere $\frac{5}{32}$ inch, is completed by the rustic dry stacked stone walls that frame the courts. Meadowood's signature architecture, featuring gabled roofs, French doors and wide porches, provides a dramatic backdrop for spirited games of croquet, which seem reminiscent of a day on a country estate at the turn of the century.

Croquet is the perfect equalizer between players of widely differing physical skills. Everyone starts at the same level, so the consummate athlete has no competitive edge. In fact, croquet is a game of strategy, not unlike chess, which offers the thinking player the true advantage. At Meadowood, we play the grown up version of the backyard game played for decades on leisurely summer afternoons.

For many first-time visitors to Meadowood, the term “croquet” evokes memories of whacking weathered wooden balls over bumpy backyard terrain. But that old childhood pastime is nothing like the adult game played at Meadowood. The resort’s two championship croquet lawns sport immaculately manicured grass resembling putting greens, where shots roll as smoothly as balls on a billiards table.
