the centerpieces

Low pedestal vases filled with fluffy hydrangeas and garden roses topped some of the tables at the reception.

the favors

Guests took home locally made, individually boxed chocolates.

the shoes

White, pearl-accented pumps went well with Jillian's detailed and elegant dress.

THE BRIDE Jillian Cullen, 25, a concierge at the W Scottsdale Hotel

THE GROOM Sean Knott, 29, works in fleet management at Enterprise Rent-A-Car

HOW THEY MET Jillian's older brother is Sean's best friend.

HOW LONG ENGAGED 1 year and 9 months

THEIR WEDDING STYLE Jillian and Sean chose Napa Valley for their destination wedding, but rather than a wine-cave setting, they envisioned an East Coast-style country club. In terms of color, they kept things natural and romantic with purple, ivory and gold. —JD

the cake

Gold piping and layers of intricate sugar flowers were ornate touches. The couple finished the cake off with a vintage topper.

the place settings

A sprig of leaves tucked into each napkin gave the place settings a pretty, natural touch.

the first dance

Jillian and Sean's first dance was to "When the Stars Go Blue" by Tim McGraw.

SEAN

the bridal style

To match her dress, Jillian chose a cathedral-length veil with organza flowers sewn at the bottom.

the ceremony

the escort cards

The calligraphed escort cards were pinned to a flower-covered birch log for a natural, romantic look.

the bridesmaid bouquets

The girls held white and purple bunches of lilacs, peonies and roses to go with their dresses.

the boutonnieres

Sean and his groomsmen wore white freesias wrapped with black-satin ribbon.

the reception

Neutral décor like embroidered ivory linens, lush white flowers and wrought-iron chandeliers dominated beneath the dinner tent.

the table names

As a nod to their heritage, Jillian and Sean named the tables after Irish counties guests' families were from.
