Adopt an Animal

TRAILSIDE MUSEUMS & ZOO At Bear Mountain State Park

Help us care for our Animals and Museums by adopting one!

Your donation will be used for food,
medical care, supplies and upkeep of our animal enclosures and museums.

Why can't the animals be released back into the wild?

Trailside Museums and Zoo is a home for rehabilitated wild animals. Many of them have permanent injuries that severely limit their ability to survive in the wild. Others were raised in captivity, so their parents never taught them to fend for themselves.

All of our animals receive excellent medical attention and are cared for each day by our dedicated zookeepers. These animals are ambassadors for their species.

They help us teach people about local wildlife, the effects humans have on them, and how they can help.
