Asger Jorn, "The Open Hide"

Art, Contemporary art

📍 Petzel Gallery, Lenox Hill

📅 Until Friday July 29 2016

An object lesson in how art history isn't set in stone, this revival of Danish artist Asger Jorn (1914–1973) reveals an artists whose powers as a painter rivaled anyone's during the 1950s and 1960s. While Jorn was a member of the CoBrA movement, Europe's analog to Abstract Expressionism, he was prone to dipping into figuration in a way that anticipated the Neo-Expression of the 1980s. This gathering of his works offers a chance to catch up with a hugely underrated figure.
