

ROSE UNIACKE

An Early Nineteenth Century Carved, Ebonised and Gilt-Brass Mounted Mirror & a later copy

English, circa 1820's

Provenance:

Probably Edward Knoblock. 11 Montagu Place.
Erica Rausen, Hanover Gallery.

£ 16,500.00

Dimensions: 58 cm wide x 70 cm high
23" wide x 27 " high

1512

76 - 78 Pimlico Road London SW1W 8PL Tel +44 (0)20 7730 7050

mail@roseuniacke.com www.roseuniacke.com Vat Number 766 6923 79

ROSE UNIACKE

paterae to the corners enclosing a central scallop edged oval plate with trefoil frame and having scrolling gilt-brass mounts to the corners. Each being ebonised.

This unusual Regency design owes much in its conception to George Bullock's strong Neo-Classical designs; the brass mounts are particularly reminiscent of his work and one could surmise that the components were bought from the dispersal sale at Tenterden Street in 1819.

1512