

Steven Gambrel designed his outdoor sitting area to feel like a living room, complete with custom sofas and tables. The staghorn ferns lining the walls connect the "room" to the garden. Blinds can be adjusted if the sun setting over Sag Harbor Cove becomes too intense.